The tiny village of Quintanamanvirgo, with a population of 92 people, has been dedicated solely to making wine for generations. The same 28 families have farmed this special land for centuries. They now combine their families' harvests to make Torremorón, exemplifying "it takes a village." In this bottle we taste the fresh vibrant fruit that comes from working by hand. We taste the honest soul of this humble village and the spirit of the farmers who make it. Reviews and more: OleObrigado.com
